Notice of decision to accept an environmental report for an environmental investigation

This notice is issued by the administering authority pursuant to section 326G(4) of the Environmental Protection Act 1994 to advise you that the administering authority has decided to accept an environmental report for an environmental investigation.

Anglo Coal (Dawson) Limited
ACN 100155342
Level 11, 201 Charlotte Street
BRISBANE CITY QLD 4000

Our reference: STAT1209

15 January 2017

Take notice: that under the Environmental Protection Act 1994 (the Act), a notice of decision to accept an environmental report for an environmental investigation is issued to Anglo Coal (Dawson) Limited (you) by the administering authority. The administering authority is the Chief Executive of Department of Environment and Heritage Protection (the department).

The notice of decision to accept an environmental report for an environmental investigation is issued in respect to the activities by Anglo Coal (Dawson) Limited at Dawson Mine on land described as Lot 4 on Plan RP613366 and Lot 27 on Plan FN187 (the premises).

The decision

The decision to accept an environmental report about a stated matter is based on the following grounds:

- A notice to conduct or commission an environmental investigation was given to you by the department on 11 September 2017.
- An environmental report was submitted to the department by you on 29 November 2017.
- The department is satisfied the report adequately addresses the relevant matters for the environmental investigation to which the report relates.
- The department requires that Anglo Coal (Dawson) update the Plan of Operations for Dawson Mine to account for the identified environmental risk associated with the seepage.

Reasons

The facts and circumstances forming the basis of these grounds and the reason for the decision are:

- The requirements contained within the Environmental Evaluation Notice issued to you on 11 September 2017 have been met.

Reviews and appeals

The provisions regarding reviews of decisions and appeals are found in sections 519 to 539 of the Act.

A person, who is dissatisfied with certain decisions of the department, may be able to apply to have the department review that original decision.

Generally, a request to have a decision reviewed must be made:

- within 10 business days of the decision being notified to the person;
- be supported by enough information to enable the department to decide the application for review; and
- be made using the application for review of an original decision form (ESR/2015/1573).

Where an application has been made for a decision to be reviewed, the applicant may also apply to the relevant court for a stay of the decision to secure the effectiveness of the review.

Once the original decision has been reviewed, a person who is dissatisfied with the review decision may be able to appeal against that decision to the relevant court within 22 business days after receiving notice of the review decision.

A person whose interests are or would be adversely affected by a decision of the department may be able to request a statement of reasons for a decision or a statutory order review under the Judicial Review Act 1991.

For further information about reviews and appeals see:

- Information sheet - internal review and appeal to the Planning and Environment Court (ESR/2015/1572).
- Information sheet - internal review and appeal to the Land Court (ESR/2015/1742).

You may have other legal rights or obligations and should seek your own legal advice.

Should you have any queries in relation to this notice, please contact Kelly Cleary, Senior Environmental Officer of the department on telephone number 07 4971 6506.
