Hi Trudy

Thank-you for your agreement to the timeframe extension, greatly appreciated. The department will work to this date.

I will work up a table of the assessment timeframes and how those have been conducted for the Wards Well PRCP assessment to provide to you, following internal approval.

Thanks again,
Kind regards,
Kathryn

Hi Kathryn,

BHP are willing to agree to the date of 12 May 2021 in terms for the information request in relation to Wards Well.

We would really appreciate if you could provide for us an explanation of the timelines since submission of the PRCP on February 26. This is purely to understand the calculation – we had tried ourselves but didn't get the same dates so it would be really good to understand where we went wrong.

Thanks and take care,
Trudy
